

If you are dissatisfied with any of the services of the Union of UEA Students and would like to complain, please follow these steps:

- 1 Fill in the form overleaf and post it in the letterbox at Union House Reception.
- 2 You should receive a response from the Communications Officer 5 working days after the receipt of the complaint. If you don't, or you are unhappy with the response, you may appeal in writing to the Student Officer Committee.
- 3 You should receive a response from the Student Officer Committee within 5 working days after the receipt of the appeal. If you are not satisfied with the action taken by the Student Officer Committee, or you do not hear anything within the time limit, you may then appeal in writing to the next meeting of the Union Council.
- 4 If you are not satisfied with the action taken to remedy your complaint, by Union Council or more than 20 working days have elapsed since your initial complaint to the Communications Officer, you may then appeal in writing to the Dean of Students.
- 5 If after 10 working days either the Union or yourself are not satisfied with the action taken by the Dean of Students you may appeal in writing to the Registrar and Secretary, requesting that the complaint be dealt with by an independent person appointed by the University Council.
- 6 The Registrar and Secretary will consult the Chair of the University Council who shall, unless the complaint is seen as frivolous, appoint an independent person to deal with the complaint. Their decision will be final.
