

VOTE FOR BECKY AUSTIN AS LGBT OFFICER

My name is Becky Austin and I'm running to be the Union's LGBT Officer. I've been an active member of UEA Pride since I came to UEA. I was an elected delegate to the NUS LGBT conference, and am currently a Welfare Officer on Pride's committee. I'm brimming with enthusiasm and ideas. I want to make your experience at UEA better whether you're L, G, B or T – or identify as something else altogether.

Questions or comments? You can contact me at becky_uea@hotmail.com, or r.austin@uea.ac.uk. Search "Becky for LGBT Officer" on Facebook to find the group.

MY MANIFESTO:

- I will campaign for the introduction of gender neutral toilets on campus. Other universities have done this and been met with success. Trans and genderqueer students should be comfortable on their campus.
- I will promote the sexual health of lesbian and bisexual women. Their health is put at risk by the lack of information and visibility of sexual protection aids for lesbian/bi women. I would ensure that information and dental dams are on offer, particularly during SHAG week.
- I will campaign against homophobic and transphobic bullying on campus. Homophobia kills – and not just when queer people are murdered, but when we kill ourselves. Queer youths are seven times as likely to commit suicide as our straight siblings, and that has to stop.
